

SAS awarded with two leading customer awards

Scandinavian Airlines has once again been recognized among the world's best, earning a Five Star rating in the 2025 APEX Global Airline Rankings. This is the third consecutive year SAS has received this honor. In addition, SAS was awarded the Frequent Traveler People's Award for Best Airline Loyalty Credit Card EMEA at the FT Awards.

These achievements highlight SAS' strong commitment to delivering excellence both in the air and through its loyalty program. Being chosen directly by frequent travelers worldwide underscores the strength of SAS' EuroBonus program and the value it provides to members. This recognition validates that travelers truly appreciate the benefits, ease of use, and features of the SAS Amex Elite loyalty credit card. It also highlights the trust and appreciation SAS enjoys among its most loyal customers in the EMEA region

"The recognitions reflect SAS' dedication to delivering outstanding travel experiences and putting passengers first," says Paul Verhagen, Chief Commercial Officer at SAS. "Because both awards are driven by our customers' voices, they are especially meaningful to us and a true honor. Being placed among the top 7% of airlines worldwide is also a testament to the hard work of our employees. We are proud of this achievement and remain committed to continually enhancing the travel experience for our customers"

Based on nearly one million passenger reviews of 600 airlines worldwide, the APEX recognition places SAS among the top 7% of airlines rated globally. Over 3.1 million loyalty program members from 184 countries cast their votes in FT Awards this year.
